CHASE DRESSMAN is an associate in the Cincinnati office of Taft Stettinius & Hollister LLP, where he is a member of the Environmental and Litigation practice groups. Chase advises clients on compliance with federal and state environmental laws and regulations (including CERCLA, RCRA, TSCA, Clean Air Act, Clean Water Act, and FIFRA), and represents clients in complex business and environmental litigation in state and federal court. He frequently assists clients with responding to regulatory inspections and inquiries, and has extensive experience in defending clients facing environmental enforcement actions at the state and federal level around the country. He routinely presents and authors publications on environmental and litigation-related topics.

Chase is serving a second consecutive term as chair of the Cincinnati Bar Association's Environmental Law Committee for 2017-2018. He is also a member of the Ohio and Kentucky Bar Associations, and a member of the Potter Stewart American Inn of Court. He is a graduate of Xavier University, cum laude, with honors, and the University of Kentucky College of Law, cum laude. While in law school, he was a member of the Kentucky Law Journal, Moot Court, and the National Moot Court Team. He is active in the Greater Cincinnati community, including as a member and vice chair of the Northern Kentucky Chamber of Commerce Regional Youth Leadership Steering Committee, steering committee member and chair of Law Day 2012, and as an alumnus of Leadership Northern Kentucky (Class of 2013). He has been recognized in Ohio Super Lawyers – Rising Stars in the field of environmental litigation.
